

Join us for a Shamanic Journey with Horses . . .

Flying on the Wings of Horses Workshop

Horses carry humans in the physical world. They can also carry us into the creative spiritual realms. Their ancient wisdom and powerful presence helps us pierce the veil between our mundane physical existence and non-ordinary reality, where spirit allies and animal totems reside. During this program you will experience several dimensions of your consciousness and access deeper levels of self.

- Ignite your untapped intuition and communicate with your animal guides
- Remove fear and step forth in your true expression with shamanic practices
- Detach from ego and live in the moment, enhancing the flow of creativity

Each day includes equine-based learning sessions, shamanic rituals and meditation. Through the course of the program the horses help you peel off the layers of your persona to allow your most authentic, courageous, and creative expression to come through. No previous experience necessary, horses are provided.
