Equine Facilitated Learning and Coaching Level One - Train the Trainer

The EFLC Level One training melds aspects of nature and horse wisdom to create a learning environment that supports authentic expression and self-realization. Through learning coaching with horses methods and processes students create new habits of thought and behavior that lead to positive results and ultimately new levels of success.

During this six-day program you learn:

- Emotional Intelligence through a deeper levels of somatic and sensory awareness
- Facilitation of reflective/contemplative equine based learning sessions
- Four Steps to the Present Method
- Mind Body Method Coaching Model (first model)
- How to integrate Horse as a teacher, mirror, and spiritual mentor in your life or business

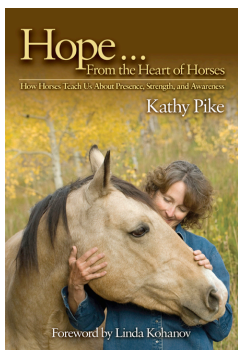

The EFLC Level One is taken by anyone (therapists, riding instructors, counselors, coaches and/or individual's on a path of personal growth) with an interest in how horses teach us about presence, strength and awareness. Participants learn tools and methods to immediately apply to their business or life. The first level of four to complete the EFLC Apprenticeship program with Kathy, Level One has strong focus on emotional awareness and integration through on the ground interactions with horses.
