

If you are ready to find your truth and expand your world of possibilities this program is for you. . .

The Dance of Authenticity Through the Wisdom of the Horse

Horses magnify your path and ignite your heart's energy. By learning and living the language and "way" of the horse your true self is revealed. Authenticity requires one to shift from simply functioning in the world to becoming connected to all aspects of life and self. Horses teach humans how to become more emotionally, spiritually and mentally agile and aware.

Take this course if you wish to:

- Feel a deeper connection with yourself and others
- Shift from surviving to thriving
- Gain clarity about your purpose and passion
- Connect to your authentic self during times of transition
- Understand how to use your Emotions as information

The majestic nature of horses is a transformational learning experience for humans. During this program you will interact with horses, develop relationships, become part of the herd, and engage your authentic self along the way. Horses naturally bring you deeper into your heart to illuminate your path. Explore the natural rhythm of an authentic life and heart-centered power through learning the way of the horse. This is a non-riding program, horse experience is not necessary, horses are provided. This is an Epona Approach™ program and qualifies you for advance work with Kathy Pike or Linda Kohanov.
